

Kathleen and I are always looking for good food, sauces and savory ideas to entertain our guests and recommend to our customers at the Village Roaster. This one came to us just before St. Patrick's Day as a possibility to be used on corned beef. We started there and expanded it to be used on pork, chicken, brats, Reuben sandwiches and many more great meats that would be enjoyed with mustard, horseradish and a little sweetness. We served it to the neighborhood gang who labeled it "sassy" and received a great response to its success. Enjoy!
